TAKE THIS CARD TO THE POLLS

NEEL KASHKARI

for Governor

My platform is simple: jobs and education. Creating economic opportunity – not bigger government – is the best way to restore California.

<http://www.neelkashkari.com>

GREG CONLON

for Treasurer

Improve California's credit rating, reduce unfunded liability of the State's two major pension funds, and stop the exodus of high-income earners and their tax revenues to other states.

PHIL WYMAN

for Attorney General

Tough on crime. Authored 3 strikes and you're out bill.

TED GAINES

for Insurance Commissioner

Bring competition to California's insurance marketplace.

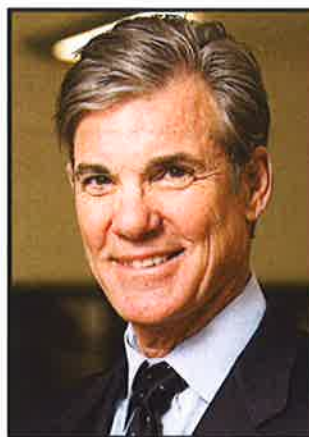

RON NEHRING

for Lt. Governor

We can do better: Taxes should be lower and simpler. Make it easier to create good paying jobs. Fix and expand our roads and infrastructure. Focus on creating new opportunity, not more dependency.

TOM TORLAKSON

for Superintendent of Public Instruction

State Superintendent Torlakson fought cuts to public schools, worked to give local teachers and parents funding decisions -- not Sacramento politicians -- and expanded career training for students who don't choose college.

DAVID EVANS

for Controller

I believe the Controller should rigorously pursue governmental abuse and waste of sacred taxpayer dollars. I believe in balanced budgets and incurring debt only for long-term physical infrastructure.

Vote YES on Prop 41

Help thousands of homeless veterans get a roof over their heads without raising taxes or creating new debt. LET'S SUPPORT OUR VETS!

Vote YES on Prop 42

Vote for government transparency! Prop 42 keeps meetings open to the public and protects our right to inspect government records.
